

Art Show changes season

To insure participants enough time to complete their projects for the next art show, the date for the 13th Annual Arts and Crafts Show has been moved up to the spring of 1983.

Many entrants in last year's show had a hard time finishing their artwork, due to holiday activities. So rather than having the show in the midst of the Thanksgiving-Christmas season, it will be more convenient to have it in the spring.
